ampsin-heads and red lights galors are shout, and all went home feeling at a veritable gilmpse of wonder-d had met their eyes in the unique charming entertainment.

the Misses Parker gave a reception The Misses Parker gave a reception Tuesday in honor of the Misses Tuesday in honor of the Misses Fin The rooms were decorated with tendision of chrysanthemums, cos-recognision of chrysanthemums, cosand La France roses, with ferns smilax used with artistle effectamilax used with a serior being in green and white, the srior being in green and white, the room in pink and green, and the room in pink and green, and the room in pink and green, and autumn leaves, George Dern, assisted by Miss and Miss Claudia Morris, served Miss Lawson served punch the hall presided, assisted by brige Kimball and Miss Stevenson. about fifty guests were present.

Wednesday Miss Annie Jensen, Wednesday er of Bishep Jensen of Forest and Mr. Soren P. Neve were mar-the Salt Lake Temple, and on ay evening the young couple endered a reception at the home as parents in Forest Dale. The parents in Forest ore beautifully decorated, the rty standing under a canopy and green, done in chrysanthe-d smilax, and the rest of the ing preitily decorated with the grey with trimmings of white is and carried roses. The affair most delightful and pretty one as enjayed by about 160 guests, and couple received many handand the congratulations ver the table with artistic ef-

Mrs. W. W. Riter entertained a few hierds informally on Wedgesday even-ne, music, delightful reminiscences, ad a Welsh rare hit being among the sent were: Bishop O. F. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Hanry Dinwoodey, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Young, Mrs. James H. Moyle, Miss Morehead of Lugan, Miss Lucy Van Cott, Miss Mamie Price, Prof. J. B. Toronto.

Miss Haitle Jennings and Miss on Tuesday evening, a large number of ams, and the tally and score cards are poster designs in red and green. The ladics prizes were won by Mrs. Election Thomas, Miss Fannie Bird and Miss Josie Katz. The gentlemen's prizes were won by Mr. Sam Porter, Hamilton Coffin and Arthur Davis.

Mrs. Susa Gates has returned from Taronio, Canada, where she went to take part in the program of the Housetake part in the program of the House-hold Economio association. On her re-turn trip Mrs. Gates stopped at Omaha to give a paper at the Nebraska branch of the some association—her addresses th conventions receiving marked

Mrs. Nellie Little and two daughters who have spent the past two months in Paris and England, will return next

On Monday evening, Mrs. Gustave Teudts was the recipient or a pleasant surprise party, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. About thirty of her friends assembled at her home on Apple street and an enjoyable evening was passed, the time being spent with games, etc., refreshments being served later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kerrick returned on Wednesday from an extended eastern including Iowa, Illinois, Indiana

Miss Nellie Pearsall gave an enjoy-shle Hallowe'en party at the Miller on Wednesday evening, the rooms being decorated with fack 'o lanterns and the and charms being features of the evening.

Mrs. Samuel Fenton has issued invitations for a reception to be given next Thursday after noon from 3 till 5, Mrs. W. S. Henderson has returned from her eastern trip.

Among the many marriages to take place in the near future is that of Miss Margaret Cahoon and Mr. Alfred Pritchard, both of this city. Miss Cahoon is a University student, and Mr.

the evening's entertainment. Ghosts, office of this city, being in the register department, both being well and popu-

The members of the Epworth League gave an enjoyable Halloween party on Thursday night at the residence of Rey. Alfred Henry, the decorations, games, etc., being of the gruesome sort that makes we the delicate at most her control of the control of that makes up the delicious atmosphere of Halloween affairs. A large number were present and the affair was much

Mrs. Victor Clement entertained at luncheon yesterday Mrs. McClure, Dr. Critchlow and Mr. F. Critchlow.

A pleasant family reunion took place at the residence of Mrs. Maggic Moyle on Wednesday evening, the event being given to honor the birthiday anniversary of the late James Moyle. The gatherings are of annual occurrence. .

Assistant Postmasier John L. Herrick of Ogden was the guest of Prof. Mc-Clellan during the week.

Miss Blanche Montague of Chicago, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lakin, left on Monday for California.

Mrs. Chas. Brink has issued invita-tions for a reception to be given next Thursday, Miss Vera Felt entertained at a Halloween party on Wednerday night.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Keith left yesterday for Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ames have come to Salt Lake to reside permanently. The Bishopric of the Twentleth ward are making arrangements for a grand ward fair to be held early in Decem-

Miss Tille Barton entertained a few of her friends last Wednesday night at an Hullowe'en party.

Mrs. Anthony Godbe entertained the sewing club yesterday.

Mrs. D. J. Sharp gave a delightful children's party on Tuesday.

The Misses Noble will leave next week for the East, to be absent during the winter.

Mrs. Relfe and Miss Relfe will lleave ext Wednesday for their home in The Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent society will give a chaminade concert and ball on Thanksgiving eve. Committees have been appointed to make arrange-ments, which will be very elaborate. Mrs. Fred Scarff will entertain at cards on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin of Detroit, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Bogan, have returned to their home.

Miss Clara Colton left on Thursday or Philadelphia, where she will spend the next six months. Miss Welby and her guest, Miss Jones have gone East. They will spend a short time in Denver and then go to Miss fones' home in Kansas. Hamilton Coffin has returned from his Apostle Brigham Young and Mrs. Amelia Folsom Young are in California.

Mrs. George Sutherland has returned from New York and is at her new home, 529 south Main street.

Mrs. S. Beckner has gone east.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton French and Miss French have gone to Santa Monica to spend the winter.

Miss Davidson, who has been the guest of Miss Josephine Katz, left on Monday for California.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Snow have eturned from an extended easter

Miss Inez Strong is visiting Mrs. Joseph Hill at Rock Springs. . . .

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Robert J. Coleman and Mrs. James Neils received the guests of their last week's function at the Fifth East Hotel.

Mrs. Alice E. Browning has returned from Denver.

The marriage of Miss Kate Sansom Pritchard is an employe of the post- | and James Pendergast took place at

BROADCLOTH AND CHIHCHILLA EMPIRE & COAT.

Elegant empire coat of gray broadcloth with deep yoke of panne velvet avered by a stamped out and embroidered applique of the cloth. Straps of panne velvet confine the box plaits which shape the body of the coat. The undersleeves are of the panne velvet and the collar is covered with chin-the bride's home on Sunday. Judge McMasters performed the ceremony.

Mrs. George K. Smith gave a pleasant children's party this afternoon for her little daughter Vivien.

Helen, arrived here this week from their home in Bolse. The latter will en-ter the St. Mary's Academy.

Mrs. J. H. Bassett and her daughter.

Judge Beatty of Boise is in the city. The Sewing Club met on Tuesday with Mrs. Elbridge Thomas.

Miss Dot Jones, who has been the guest of Mrs. D. B. Hempstead, left on Tuesday for Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beatle, Miss Hazel Beatle, and Mrs. Chas. Burton, leave shortly to spend the winter at Pacific Grove, California.

Mrs. Guile and Miss Guile are the guests of Mrs. George A. Lowe.

Mrs. Ben Davis is visiting Mrs. Jo-seph Hill at Rock Springs.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

On Monday evening the pretty home of ex-Councilman Richard Hill, 38 Twenty-third street, was the of an event which united in bonds of natrimony, two of Ogden's most pop lar young people, Miss Charlotte Hill and Mr. John F. Gimlin. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock in the even-ing, Rev. W. E. Malson, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, officiating, and was a very quiet one. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion. vith beautiful flowers and evergreens 'he bride wore a very beautiful gown The bride wore a very beautiful gown. Miss Rose Hartog was bridesmaid, and Mr. John Hill, brother of the bride acted as best man. The contracting parties are well and favorably known here. The bride is the daughter of Hon. Richard Hill, and a beautiful and accomplished young lady. She was born and educated in this city. The groom is one of the best known young men in the city. He has resided here for the past three years, coming from Colora-do. He is one of the most popular base-ball men in the State, having gained for himself a high reputation as man-ager of the Ogden Baseball association. The young couple have a host of friends in the city and elsewhere wh will be glad to extend congratulations and wishes of joy and happiness. After the ceremony was performed the guests repaired to the dining room where an elaborate wedding supper was served Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Rich ard Hill, of Salt Lake, Rev. Maison, Mrs. Griffin, of Omaha, Miss Rose Hartog, Will Hill and F. M. Whipple. Mr. and Mrs. Gimlin have taken up their home on the corner of Adams avenue and Twenty-second street here they will be pleased to see their

The home of Mr. W. H. Chevers was The home of Mr. W. H. Chevers was thrown open on Tuesday evening to the members of the Ogden baseball team. for a general good time, which was enjoyed by all present. Mr. Chevers has been a strong supporter of the Ogden baseball team and has always been on hand to help them out, and in appreciation of the same, the members of the club presented the gentleman with the elegant silver cup which they won this year by their successful playing in the year by their successful playing in the Utah-Idaho League games. Mr. Chevers is well known as an entertain-er and Monday evening he did himself great honor. After a few hours of merry making the guests were taker to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served. Those present were J. F. Gimlin, Homer Plake, Jack Hen-ery, Pearl Casey, John Greenwell, Fred Clark, Fred Bruce, F. M. Whipple, Charles McGregor, and Frank Hans-are arranging for a bazar, to be given the beginning of December.

The Fourth ward Sunday school gave a very delightful ball in their new hall Thursday evening. The attendance was large and a very enjoyable time was had by all present.

The Fifth ward fair has been the drawing card for this week. The at-tendance was very large each afternoon and evening, and many hearts have been gladdened by their good luck in winning the various articles that have been raffled. The fair will remain open Monday and Tuesday. Everybody is invited to attend and enjoy themselves listening to the sweet music and feast ing on the sumptuous merchants' lunch which is being served by the ladies.

Mrs. W. H. West, Mrs. F. R. Chris-tensen and Mrs. R. J. Taylor of Og-den were in Salt Lake City in attend-ance at the gathering of the women's

The Ogden High school is arranging for one of the most elaborate balls of the season, to be given next Friday evening, November 2th, in Christensen's beautiful dancing academy. academy full orchestra will furnish the music, and the various committees are working hard to have everything in or der for the evening.

Miss Maud Littlefield, who has been visiting with friends in Ogden, has re-turned to her home in Morgan City.

Mrs. W. A. White entertained the Misses Rathbone yesterday afternoon at her home, No. 758 24th street.

Hon. James H, Moyle was an Ogden visitor this week on political business.

Mrs. J. T. Hurst entertained the Aglaia Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Larkin, of St. Johns, Tooele county, are visiting in Ogden with their son, George W. Larkin, Sr.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Utah Sorosis met at the house of Mrs. R. R. Irvine Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. D. D. Houtz presided. A miscellaneous program was rendered. Miss laneous program was rendered. Alss Alile Smoot gave a well prepared paper on "The Boer War from a Boer Standpoint." Miss Beulah Bactiman gave the "Boer War from an English and an American Standpoint." Mrs. Lilzie Sutton gave from the "World's Work." the cost of a "National Campaign." Mrs. Lillian Hamilin Cannon and Mrs. Flora Horne were elected members of Flora Horne were elected members of the club. Mrs. Joseph E. Yates, a deegate to the Federation, gave her report which was very lengthy and of a most interesting character. Mrs. S. A. King and Miss Alice Reynolds also gave reports along their line of work with the

The executive board at the recent ses sion of the Federation decided to hold the next annual meeting at Provo. A report of the decision was given by Mrs. King, and was received with high

The ladies of Provo clubs will esteem it an honor to have the Federation held in Provo, and will no doubt extend a cordial reception and becoming enter-ainment to visiting members.

CLUB CHAT.

The Tourist section of the Ladies' The Tourist section of the Ladles' Literary club will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The papers omitted from the last meeting will be read, and "Brussels" will be given by Miss Freed—The Battlefield of Waterloo by Mrs. Roberts. The History section of the Ladles' Literary club will meet at the club house Thursday morning, November 8th, at 10 o'clock. The subjects will be: "The Restoration," by Mrs. Hanak, and "The Secret Treaty of Hanak, and "The Secret Treaty of tles free at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Dores," by Mrs. Lakin. One minite

The French section of the Ladies' Lita, m., the session to be a wholly social

The Council of Women's clubs hed a meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Woman's club rooms, city and ounty building.

The Cleofan meets next Tuesday at he nome of Miss Emmeline Wells.

The Michigan federation was on during last week. It was the fifth annution of President I. S. Snyder of the Michigan Agricultural College. The women's department of the college was to have a new building opened and he federation was to meet about th time the final polish was put on t doors. The response to the invitati in entire day assisting at the led ory ceremonies. After that they got lown to business, Mrs. Ella W. Shank ion committee which looked aft comfort and pleasure of the 400 epresentative Hall, where the regu the with the Michigan officials who are rying to preserve the forests of the state. Mrs. Lydia P. Williams, presi-tent of the Minnesota federation, made he same plea for help in preservin Minnesota forest land that she did be fore the Rockford women. Her in-dorsement was oulte as hearty as in

Other features of the gathering were the memorial for Mrs. Lucinda H. Stone of Kalamazoo, mother of the woman's club movement in Michigan, who died recently, and the decision to endeavor to secure the passage of a law. cavor to secure the passage of a law roviding for the appointment of wo-sen on the boards of state institutions. Prominent speakers in the convention vere Mrs, Martha E. Root of Bay City, who talked for labor unions and advoated shorter hours for labor, and Mrs. Marie B. Ferry of Lansing, Mrs. C. D. Dodge, Mrs. H. E. Gibson, Mrs. J. E. Hamomnd, Mrs. G. A. Caine, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Anna G. Pease of Big Rapids, vice president of the federation: Mrs, Irma T. Jones, Miss Maud B, Keller, dean of the woman's department of the agricultural college, and Mrs. Edward Wheeler of Manistee, who was eration and has always been among the Marietta, Ohio, received the Ohio federation last Wednesday, and over four hundred delegates registers; there. The meeting was one of the largest and most important ever held, and the women feel that the time for serious politi-cal study has come. The contest over the election of officers was one of the liveliest in federation history, and some fine legal points were tested in the direction of nomination and ballot cast-

Wisconsin is next in line for a federation gathering, and will open their first session in Racine November 7th. Indinana women meet this month also at South Bend.

It is interesting to learn of the Hawaiian Weman's club successfully launched in Honolulu five years ago. It was started by an American school teacher who was wont to invite young formal conversation on some topic outgrowth was a full-fledged club thirty-four members, most of them bering Hawalians, with a mixture, how-ever, of Chinese and Portuguese. The president this year is a Chinese girl, who wears the quaint national costume when she fills the official chair.

Cream white carnations, hand-paintcome out in artistic reli American Beauty red cover of the syear book that heralds the work the Ladies' Tuesday Afternoon club of Perry, Ok. This beautiful attention to detail of finish provides the with a decorative souvenir which will be prized more and more as years ad-vance. The program is full of inter-esting topics up to date and progres-sive. One of the first meetings of the season is devoted to a synopsis of the Spanish-American war, causes, even and results of the English-Boer diff culties with a discussion of the effect of these wars, commercially and polilically upon various countries. Eac day's lesson is independent, a plan tha always results in attractive versatility, and in this instance provides treats in iterature, religious and political hisdomestic science and holiday

The program at the Ladies' Literary club next Friday is in charge of Mrs. Wightman and the subjects will be "The Prophets of the Nineteenth Century: The Jesters of the Nineteenth Century.

The Browning section will meet on Tuesday at 8 p. m. The Tourist section will meet at 10 in the morning. The history section will meet on Thursday morning at 10 a. m. * * *

The Shakespeare section will meet on Monday at 2:30 o'clock.

The Round Table club met on Monday with Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mrs. Bradley being chairman. Byron was the poet, the noem selected being Childe Harold with reading by the club members. The place cards were pictures of the Parthenon, and the table was decorated with chrysanthemuns. The orated with chrysanthemunis. The guests were Mrs. Harst, Miss Sheehan and Mrs. Hyde Dale.

The Cleofan met on Tuesday with Mrs. Susie D. R. Wells, the program consisting of a history of the Women's Suffrage movement by Mrs. E. B. Wells,

The Utah Woman's Press club held Wednesday night. A number guests were in costumes suggest some literary personage and the ning was pleaseantly spent in a ten by diffe

About the breezlest bit of club news is that Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, of Denver, who might have been president of the general federation if she wanted of the general federation if she wanted of the general federation if she wanted of is out as a candidate for senator rom Colorado. Once it was rumored han rMs. Platt would not object to being lieutenant governor of her State. But Mrs. Platt will doubtless have the enthusiastic support of all dub women. And that counts literally in Colorado

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. who attended her that fearful hight, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her. This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases, Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottless free at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

PROPERSONAL DESCRIPTION OF THE A RARE

Quilt and Blanket Bargain Occurrence!

This Department to be the Center of Excitement for Next Week. Monday morning we're going to give some values in Blankets and Quilts that are little short of marvelous.

The Finest of White Blankets. The Finest of Down and Silk Quilts.

At the most extraordinary price concessions ever known on such Merchandise. Just note the VALUES and the SELLING PRICES. The combination is strong enough to sell them out before Monday night. Here are what will be offered, and you owe it to yourself to be here early, as naturally the best will be first to go.

This Week.

$5.95

Next Week at $6.65

A PAIR.

Next Week

On Sale

Next Week

$9.35

Finest White Blankets.

VALUES.

$8.00 AND $8.50 VALUES

In fine White Wool Blankets, some 10:4 and some 12:4 size, finely finished and the wool is clean and beautiful; weigh from 5 to 6 lbs.

$9,00 AND $9.50 VALUES In fine White all-wool Blankets, possessing the finest of finish; some 70x82 inches; some 10.4 $10 AND $10.50 VALUES

In extra fine White all-wool California Blankets which for wear, strength and durability can't be beaten 12-4 size.

$12.50 AND $13 VALUES (THE BEST) in superfine all-wool

White California Blankets, made for finest retail trade; some 7 lb.; some 8 lb.; size 12:4. Better Crades Cut in Proportion.

Silk Quilts. Selling Price VALUES.

> $4.50 Down Quilts on Sale at $3.15

Selling Price

Finest Down and

$6.75 Down Quilts on Safe at each

$8.50 Down Quilts on Sale at each $12.00 Down Quilts on Sale

O Down Quilts, silk on one side, satine on the other, on sale at each

All Silk Down Quilts on sale at All Silk Down Quilts, only a limited few, on sale at each Satin Down Quilt, elegant in design, coloring and quilting on sale at each 27.00 C. CANO TES

CORRECT CLOTHING That's the kind we always endeavor to keep. We dise is the kind we vouch for. will always endeavor to merit the fullest measure of still stand by our colors. We shall always sell the best goods at the lowest prices, and our merchan-We want your confidence with your patronage and such confidence. Bring your boys to us for their wearing apparel. We sell the kind that they will feel proud of and the price will not be any more than the other kind.

The Siegel Clothing Company,

61, 68, 68 MAIN STREET

Heber J. Grant & Co.

INSURANCE AGENCY.

OUR COMPANIES:

THE HARTFORD, of Hartford, Ct. GERMAN AMERICAN, of New York

NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE, London and Edinburgh PENNSYLVANIA, of Philadelphia.

NORTHERN, of London.

FIRE ASSOCIATION, of Philadelphia.

TEUTONIA, of New Orleans, and THE HOME FIRE INSURANCE CO. OF UTAH.

PARLORS. 240 S. Main St.,

Ripans Tabules he certainly

Then he's pretty well sure
Of effecting a cure,
And away then the headache
soon flies.

10 for 5 cents at drug stores.